FROM THE DESK OF FR. CHRIS

Dear St. Mary's Family,

Many of us begin Lent with high expectations. We want to have a good Lent, a time when we are renewed in our faith and are ready to continue to go deeper in our lives as disciples. So how can we do this? How can we have a Lent that will prepare our heart to joyfully celebrate the resurrection? Jesus in the gospel we heard on Ash Wednesday gives us the blueprint. In his great sermon on the mount the Lord instructs his disciples by saying, "when you pray, when you fast, when you give alms..." He does not use the word "if" but "when" letting us know that these elements are non-negotiable but rather are constitutive elements in our journey of faith. Our prayer life is meant to be the foundation of all that we do so that we live with our minds focused on the One Who gives us all that we need. We fast, not only from food and drink but in other areas of our life such as social media or frivolous time spent online. When it comes to giving alms this too goes beyond what is normally assumed by the term. Giving alms does not just mean monetary giving but refers to the giving of our time to others, especially those who are struggling or suffering. In addition to this we have the great devotional practice of the Stations of the Cross. Every Friday here at the parish we have the stations at 7 PM. This is beautiful way for us each week to be reminded of our Lord's Passion and his great love for all of us. Another central element is the sacrament of reconciliation. Offered every Saturday from 2:30-3:30pm (and always available if you call the office or speak to us after Mass), this is great way for us to prepare our hearts for Easter by receiving the mercy of the Risen Lord. If we do these things and the other opportunities that are offered throughout this holy season it will help us to truly have a Lent that will prepare us well for the gift of the resurrection. - Fr. Chris
