Good Friday at 7:15pm.

Holy Thursday is the night of the Last Supper, the night Jesus gave the Church the Eucharist and the priesthood. After the Supper they went to the Garden of Gethsemane where Jesus prayed and was betrayed by Judas. He was arrested and tried in the house of the High Priest of the Temple.

Mass on Thursday evening begins at 7pm.
The Church will remain open for private prayer until midnight.

Jesus is brought before Pilate and proceeding from a sick mixture of hatred, apathy and the vapid desires of a crowd He is condemned to death. After horrific torture, He is led to Calvary to be nailed to the Cross where He will bleed, and eventually suffocate, causing His Sacred Heart to burst. He is lowered down – placed in the hands of His mother Mary, and buried before the busy vigil of Passover and left to be anointed the following Sunday, after the Sabbath was over.

Friday Morning Prayer at 9am
Liturgy of the Passion 3pm
Stations of the Cross and Confessions 715pm

The morning of Holy Saturday is known primarily by its absence – the church while open is empty of light – no music – no Eucharist – no decoration - nothing.....because Christ is dead in the tomb. However, Christ begins what is known in theology as the “Harrowing of Hell” and is about to be raised by the Power of God on the night of the Easter Vigil! Christ is Risen!

Morning Prayer at 9am
Easter Vigil Mass at 8pm

What is "Spy Wednesday"?

Before Jesus celebrated the Passover, a "spy" went out to betray him.

As the days of Holy Week move forward, various events occur that directly lead to what will take place on Good Friday. Among these events was the fateful betrayal of Jesus by one of his own disciples.

Then one of the twelve, who was called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests and said, "What will you give me if I deliver him to you?" And they paid him thirty pieces of silver. And from that moment he sought an opportunity to betray him. (Matthew 26:14-16)

This action by Judas earned him the title of "spy" by medieval Christians, in accord with the traditional definition of the English word, "one who keeps secret watch on a person or thing to obtain information."

From Wednesday onward, Judas secretly watched for a chance to turn Jesus over to the chief priests, and so many Christians labeled this day as "Spy Wednesday." In the same vein various cultures reflected the somber mood of this day by calling it "Black Wednesday" or "Wednesday of Shadows," which also corresponds to the liturgical rite of Tenebrae that is celebrated on this day.

PRAYER BEFORE THE CRUCIFIX

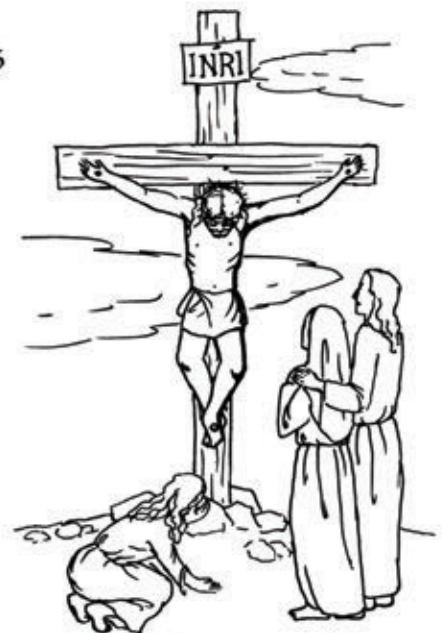

Behold, O kind and gentle Jesus, I kneel before you and pray that you would impress upon my heart the virtues of faith, hope and charity, with true repentance for my sins and a firm purpose of amendment. At the same time, with sorrow I meditate on your five precious wounds, having in mind the words which David spoke in prophecy: "They have pierced my hands and my feet. I can count all my bones" (Psalm 22).
