First Communicant Amelia Lepore's Poem

When it was already evening, since it was the day of preparation, the day before the Sabbath, Joseph of Arimathea, a distinguished member of the council, who was himself awaiting the Kingdom of God, came and courageously went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Pilate was amazed that he was already dead. He summoned the centurion and asked him if Jesus had already died. And when he learned of it from the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph. Having brought a linen cloth, he took him down, wrapped him in the linen cloth and laid him in a tomb that had been hewn out of rock. Then he rolled a stone against the entrance of the tomb. Mary Magdalene and Mary, the mother of Jesus, watched where he laid. Mark 15, 42-47.

The name of this Ministry takes itself from Joseph of Arimathea, who appears in all four gospels. These men and women assist the presider at funeral liturgies in order to offer a meaningful, comforting service, hospitality, and sympathy to bereaved families of fellow parishioners.

This is a new ministry at St. Mary's – part of the Corporal Works of Mercy – to bury the dead.

The role of an Arimathean at St. Mary's would include welcoming families in the lobby – directing to the restrooms and seating. If there is a need: be a lector, Eucharistic Minister or altar server. You are basically present to bring peace and comfort to the bereaved. You will be notified when there is a funeral.

Kindly email your interest to stmarysjversweyveld@gmail.com

Our Music Ministry enhances our worship of God through song. If you are interested in joining any of our choirs as guitarists, organists, vocalists or cantors, please contact Marie Temple at 845-496-3730, ext 1101 or stmarysmtemple@gmail.com

WHO LOVES TO GARDEN?

St. Mary's is looking for volunteers to maintain the grounds of our Parish. This could include weeding, deadheading plants and trimming. If you have some time and would like to be of service, please call Marie Temple at 845-496-3730, ext 1101 or email us at: stmarysmtemple@gmail.com

Come Holy Spirit

Come Holy Spirit,
fill the hearts of your faithful
and kindle in them the fire of your love.
Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created.
And You shall renew the face of the earth.

O, God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit,
did instruct the hearts of the faithful,
grant that by the same Holy Spirit
we may be truly wise and ever enjoy His consolations,
Through Christ Our Lord,
Amen.

Desk of
Fr. Chris*

Dear Saint Mary's Family,

It's hard to believe that we are coming to the end of the Easter season, these fifty days of celebration focusing on the great gift of the Lord's risen life, the new life promised to us as well.

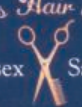

This week we celebrate Pentecost, when we remember the coming of the Holy Spirit and rejoice that the presence of the Spirit is always with the Church. Even though we celebrate the Paschal Mystery, the Passion, death, resurrection and ascension of Jesus, in a unique way each liturgical year, the reality is that the theme of the Paschal Mystery runs throughout our lives as well.

In the course of our lives, we all experience various types of deaths, from the change of jobs, to moving, to the loss of friendships, there are all kinds of deaths we experience. We grieve the reality of these losses and mourn as we should when there is a painful separation. Yet we then experience a type of resurrection as we embrace the new realities that confront us. But, the only way for us to truly enter into whatever is new requires that we let go of what has passed. It may live on in our memory and these may be cherished for the rest of our lives but we must, in a sense, let these things ascend, let go in order for us to enter into and embrace what is new. I think about this in my own life as a priest. I have loved the various parishes that I have served during my ministry and leaving was very difficult, there surely was a grieving experience. But, as I began in a new place I let go of the old and was able to embrace my role of service somewhere else.

It is these deaths, resurrections and ascensions in our life that enable us to receive the Spirit, to be empowered to do whatever it is God is calling us to do. It is said that the only constant in life is change. How true this is. But, as we go through all of life's experiences, we do so within the rhythm of the Paschal Mystery knowing that whatever comes our way Jesus is with us always, exactly as He promised.
