EXCITING RAFFLE INFORMATION

I am excited to announce that we are having a parish raffle in conjunction with St. Roch's parish in Connecticut. Other parishes have done this in the past and it has been a great opportunity to help financially. St. Roch's asked for a database of parishioners so they can mail you the info, (don't worry, it is illegal for them to share your address with a third party or solicitor). You should receive the letter shortly. Tickets cost $25 and there are almost 40 prizes available with the smallest payout being $1,000. The way it works is $12.50 is sent to St. Roch's for the prizes and we keep $12.50 here. If enough people do this it could be a great financial windfall for St. Mary's. I hope you will consider this and good luck!

Religious Education News

St.Mary's Religious Education Ministry

When it came time for my daughter to register her son for first grade religious ed 8 years ago, I figured as a Grandma who's retired, I could lighten my daughter's load by offering to be his "transportation" to/from religion. Besides, it would also give me some special 1:1 time with my eldest grandchild...LOL! Since I was driving him roundtrip and there really wasn't much I could do in that time frame, I offered to stay and help...Jeanne took me up on my offer! Hall 'monitor' for the first level classes evolved into a classroom helper who occasionally subbed, into full-fledged teacher this past year.

Teaching the students about our faith has certainly enriched mine! The best reward (so far!) has been that this same grandson asked me to be his Sponsor for Confirmation! The only thing better will be his sister asking me to be her Sponsor, too. I sure didn't think when I offered to drive those 8 years ago, that I'd be feeling as blessed as I am today by volunteering...not only for being an active participant in both my grandchildren's religious lives...but also for having my faith deepened due to sharing it with the students.

From the desk of Fr. Chris

Dear St. Mary's Family,

Thirty years ago my parents and I were on vacation during the summer in Hawaii. One of the places we made sure to visit was Pearl Harbor. Even though I was a child at the time, I still remember the impression that it left on me. One of the most moving moments was when a veteran, who had been there the morning of the attack, talked to all of us about the experience. How a beautiful, warm Sunday morning in early December was shattered by the sound of planes and bombs. The memories of that moment were still so very vivid for him and people whom he knew were undoubtedly killed in the attack as well.

It is worth remembering the sacrifices made by so many, as we celebrate this Memorial Day. We give thanks to God for all those who, as Abraham Lincoln spoke of at the Gettysburg Address, gave the last full measure of devotion, and we know that these honored dead surely will not have died in vain.

As Catholics, every time we come to Mass, it is a type of memorial day for us. Every Mass is the re-presentation of Jesus' Sacrifice for our salvation. In the un-bloody sacramental Real Presence under the form of bread and wine in the Eucharist, we remember the outpouring of His Precious Blood for us on Calvary's hill. This Sacrifice has not saved us from an earthly dictator, but from the tyranny of Satan, sin, and even death itself. In the same way we pause with great solemnity this weekend to remember with deep gratitude the sacrifices of our servicemen and women, let us remember at times throughout the year to thank the One Whose Sacrifice truly has saved us.
