In the national debate of who should be in and who can come to our nation we must never, ever, forget that no matter what side we take one thing is important: we all belong to the same God, who, created us in His image and likeness. Care of the hurting, the poor and the stranger is one of the criteria for the Final Judgment in Matthew 25. That's not political but Catholic.

We live in a world with a lot of technical knowledge but not a lot of wisdom. Cultures & people toss out the wisdom of Jesus and His Church quite happily & then wonder why their lives seem "off." Often devout senior citizens can be tremendous sources of wisdom. Ask your parents or grandparents for a piece of this wisdom?

Census 2020

Last week a guy told me as he was driving, "I'll see ya, we're moving to North Carolina" - I will miss him a lot, when I got back from the office I remembered to delete them, but there are probably hundreds of folks who've moved or don't practice their faith so we are going to be updating our records to ensure we have a complete and accurate list of actual parishioners.

Wanna go deeper, catch up, and receive a sacrament? In September we will begin another year of Catholicism 101....Monday evenings at 7pm this Fall.
