Back to “priest school” for you both!

This week we say goodbye ‘till Thanksgiving (maybe, lol) to our parish seminarians: “Brother Zach” and Joe Haas!

Zach came to us the first night of the Oktoberfest, to the last evening Mass here in the parking lot. And in between - wow – he kept us connected through his magic of recording and editing the Mass, other videos and more during the worst of the lockdown.

I don’t think we can ever adequately say thank for this gift of his talent during the wackiest times of our lives as a world, nation, community and parish.

Zach heads up to Boston to finish his final years of preparation for the priesthood. He knows that his “adopted home parish” here in the Archdiocese of New York will be pulling and praying for him.

Joe Haas has grown up and worked here at St. Mary’s all his life. After returning from college seminary he has helped us with projects, limited youth ministry, and particularly with Vacation Bible School.

He’s already headed back to Douglaston, Queens for his final year of philosophy, before entering the major seminary.

Thank you Zach Alspaugh & Joe Haas - God Bless you both and may He lead you closer to the altar one day!

After Labor Day, Wednesday mornings will see Eucharistic Adoration take place from 630am until the morning Mass at 830am. Use the “drop off” time or commute time to come in and pray for our parish, our nation & our world in the Church.

Elizabeth DeFazio is working on her Gold Award for Girl Scouts – her project is a memorial surrounding the Sacred Heart statue at the entrance of the property to the memory of those who died (COVID or not) who were not able to have a Funeral Mass, or folks with them in the hospital or at their burial.

If you are aware of someone from Saint Mary’s or a relative of a parishioner who’d like to be remembered please let her know by emailing a name to

2020pandemicmemorialrace@gmail.com

Weekly Communion are better than First Communion. Come this weekend too!

The Rosary is recited every Tuesday at 7pm in the Church and after 830am Daily Mass around 9am.

We’ll also be saying the Rosary before the 8pm Mass on the first Saturdays of the month (with Adoration) because of the amazing response we got last weekend!

Wow! We had an amazing number safely gathered for the 8pm last week. As our Masses are starting to fill up again maybe think about coming ten minutes early so you're not stuck with no spaces in the front. It's awesome to have you back.....welcome home!

After death you're feeling very positive at the Judgment Seat of Christ until the Lord says, "Let's pull up your Twitter, Facebook comments, and internet history." Remember - we are Catholics online also.

Perhaps we should recall this when we have a moment of temptation to "search", delete our history, hit the "like" button or comment on Facebook, or reply on Twitter.

This made my Saturday morning – Krys W is home! Many of you were asked to pray for this kid - he had one heck of an AV accident and was 50 days in hospital. Now he's home! We prayed, received Communion, laughed and shared a beautiful moment with the family and their dedicated friends!

An even better building project....

Can you believe it has been two years since we were made "move in" ready? Who would have guessed what would have taken place over this two year period? Who would have imagined having to build a stage outdoors for the offering of Mass as masked people walk up to Holy Communion as cars' engines hum in the background, crazy right?

Now I need your help for a new building project and it won't cost you any money. It isn't a stage or a CCD building, not even a paint job or renovation on the church, but a parish building project which brings our parish back to what we were and more. While we have done better than many places in terms of people back to Mass - "better" isn't the best that I or we can do.

Please help me in inviting people back to a safe and sacred celebration of our Catholic Faith: most particularly in the Mass on the weekends. Bring one set of friends back one weekend or even at daily Mass.....it will make a big difference.

As autumn settles in we are going to welcome four sisters (nuns) who live in Monroe to help with home visits, religious education, and parish work, including youth ministry.

Please pray for these young sisters and their vocations.

Parish Visitors of Mary Immaculate

Confessions

Are being held from 445-530pm on Saturday in Religious Ed wing and will be screen or face to face.

Enrolled CCD families will be invited to a two day VBS for several weeks on Wednesdays and Thursdays. It's 2 ½ hours for grades 1-6 with 7-12th serving as counselors so that these poor kids and parents get some time away and time together. It will include games, lessons, prayer and music! Link will be sent to enrolled families soon.

St John Baptiste DeLaSalle is patron saint of educators. Particularly now - despite people's differences - let's pray for all in school work - who never wanted to have to make the choices they are now compelled to make. WCSD, Burke, Cornwall, Bosco, MW and more are making choices that differ but pray for them all.
