PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY

...Continuing our priest's Q&A from last weekend (Priesthood Sunday). We'll be sharing more of their answers each weekend in the bulletin and on Facebook.

1. What type of music do you like?

Fr. Chris- My favorite type of music is classical.

Fr. Matt- I enjoy all different types of music from Gregorian Chant and Polyphony, Classical, Classic Rock, Christian Contemporary, Jazz, and Country. I recently went to see Zac Brown Band in concert with my sister and brother in law and really enjoyed seeing them perform.

2. What is the best vacation you ever took and why?

Fr. Chris- Although it was more a pilgrimage than a vacation my favorite place was the Holy Land. I went after just a year of priesthood so to celebrate Mass at the sites where Jesus ministered was extraordinary.

Fr. Matt- Trips that I made with my family to Cape Cod growing up as well as the first time I went to Rome, Italy for Holy Week with a group from my high school in April 2001, where I saw Pope St. John Paul II for the very first time.

3. Where is the next place on your bucket list to travel to and why?

Fr. Chris- Australia. I think it would be amazing to see the culture and natural beauty of a place literally a world away.

Fr. Matt- I would like to explore the shrines, monasteries, and vineyards of Southern France. I have a great love of Church History, European History and Culture and particularly France.

4. What are your hobbies and how did you get into them?

Fr. Chris- I enjoy reading which has been a lifelong hobby and recently over the last two years I spend time each day practicing Spanish. I am proud of my current 930 days streak on DuoLingo.

Fr. Matt- I recently picked up running again after a period when I had gained a lot of weight. I also occasionally golf but I am a horrible golfer. During the COVID-19 quarantine, I started to write articles on various theological and spiritual topics in light of current issues facing the church and the world. I also wrote an online curriculum through a college connection for the St. Paul's Evangelization Institute as well as a curriculum for a six week online course for the Avila Institute School of Spiritual Formation.

(to be continued next weekend...)

BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS THIS WEEKEND

The Blessing of the Animals in honor of St. Francis of Assisi will take place this Saturday, October 2nd, immediately following the 4pm vigil Mass outside the Church.

The Blessing of the Animals will take place at St. Columba's Church this Sunday, October 3rd, immediately following the 12:00pm Mass outside the Church.

Come and bring your pets to have them blessed!

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT

The second collection last weekend, was taken up for our seminarians studying at St. Joseph's Seminary in Yonkers.

Joe Haas, who came home to St. Mary's last weekend, wrote a message to all St. Mary's parishioners below:

*"Dear St. Mary's parishioners,
Thank you so much for your generosity last weekend with the annual appeal for St. Joseph's Seminary. It is always a joy for me to be back in my home parish with my parish family. Please continue to pray for me and for an increase of vocations from our parish. The people of St. Mary's will continue to have a special place in my prayers. - Joe Haas"*

PARISH HOLY HOUR & EUCHARISTIC PROCESSION THIS SUNDAY

All parishioners are welcome to a Holy Hour and Eucharistic Procession on Sunday, October 3rd.

Confessions will be available from 6:45-7:45pm.

Adoration will begin at 6:45pm, following the 6pm mass at St. Mary's. It will be followed by a procession, rosary, and end with benediction at 8pm.

For Horizons members: this event will take the place of our weekly youth group meeting. There will be no meeting on Oct. 10 due to the holiday weekend.

Regular meetings will resume on October 17th.

FROM THE DESK OF FR. CHRIS

Someone once said that a good metaphor for the Catholic Church would be, “here comes everybody!” This points to the diversity of the Church and the universal nature of the Church, which is after all what the word “Catholic” means. No matter where you are in the world, even if the language spoken is completely unknown, you can go to Mass and feel at home because the Mass is the Mass from the gilded basilicas of Rome to a humble structure in the campos of the Dominican Republic. Often in ministry we priests have a particular insight into the universal nature of the Church and how through our faith and our parish we experience the reality of this. Over the last week I have been struck by this in a unique way. Last Thursday at St. Columba I went from a tragic wake where I was speaking with and trying to console the family to a meeting with a couple that I am preparing for marriage. Surely an emotional swing. Saturday at St. Mary’s I had a funeral Mass for a long time parishioner and less than half an hour after I left Fr. MacDonald had a baptism welcoming our newest parishioner. Later that day he presided at a wedding as a couple began their life together. From the joys to the sorrows we priests are there for it all, often on the same day hours if not sometimes minutes apart. But it is a sign of two vibrant parishes with people who know the Lord and the importance of turning to Him and the Church in these milestone moments of their life.

- Fr. Chris
